Academy Cancellation Policy

By applying for any type of membership you commit to remaining a member for the agreed term of your membership (unless otherwise agreed in writing). You cannot cancel your membership within this time and refunds will not be given.

In the event that a player becomes sick or injured for a period of greater than 4 weeks arrangements can be made to defer that membership to a later term. A medical certificate will be expected and any requests for a deferral must be one in writing.

No make up sessions will be offered for lesson's missed during any given term.

The Institute of Golf reserves the rights to cancel any academy programme prior to the start date of any of the academy programmes, in the case of insufficient numbers in order to run the programme. The Institute of Golf reserves the right to reschedule a session date during the year but will do so with a minimum of 2 week's notice, in the event of an on course session's being cancelled due to bad weather the Institute of Golf will work with the Academy groups to reschedule the session.
